Native American Heritage Month

Events

Thursday, November 1st, 12:30-1:30pm
Exhibition of Dancers & Singers from Haskell Indian Nations University and the University of Kansas
Kansas Union, Union Plaza
Sponsored by FNSA

Friday, November 2nd – Friday, November 9th
Second Annual “Week of Indigenous Eating Mini-Challenge”
See www.aihd.ku.edu for details.
Organized by Devon Mihesuah, Professor Humanities and Western Civilization.

Tuesday, November 6th, 11:00—2:00pm
Meat Pie Sale
Ecumenical Christian Ministries
Sponsored by FNSA

Wednesday, November 7th, 6:00—8:00pm
Sabatini Multicultural Resource Center, Classroom
University of Kansas
Sponsored by FNSA, NFSC & EGARC

Tuesday, November 13th, 12:30pm
Professor Sarah Deer, William Mitchell College of Law
Green Hall, Room 203
Sponsored by Native American Law Student Association

Thursday, November 15th, 12:00—1:00pm
Native Faculty & Staff Council (NFSC) Meeting
Sabatini Multicultural Resource Center
University of Kansas

Friday, November 16th, 6:00—8:00pm
“Night of the Lanterns: Exploring Native Leaders”
Haskell Indian Nations University
155 Indian Avenue
Sponsored by Four Winds Native Center

Monday, November 19th, 4:00—6:00pm
“Bad Sugar” Film with post-film discussion.
Native American health disparities.
Jamie Simpson, Director of Accessibility and ADA Education, Office of Institutional Opportunity & Access.
University of Kansas
Sponsored by NFSC

Tuesday, November 27th, 12:00pm
“Indigenous Peoples and the Law of the Land”
Indigenous Studies & Law School panel on Native American Land Rights
Sabatini Multicultural Resource Center, Classroom
University of Kansas

Thursday, November 29th, 5:00—8:00pm
“Honoring Cultural Heritage and the Environment: the Wakarusa Wetlands and Environmental Justice” Short Film
Sabatini Multicultural Resource Center, Classroom
University of Kansas
Sponsored by Environs/EcoJustice Wetlands Preservation Organization

For more information contact the Office of Multicultural Affairs at (785)864-4350.
For complete description of programs visit the OMA’s Facebook Page:
http://www.facebook.com/KUMulticulturalAffairs