Wednesday, November 6, 10:00 am & 7:00 pm
We Were Children Documentary
Haskell Cultural Center & Museum
Questions Call: 785-766-5000

Friday, November 8, 12:00 pm—1:00 pm
“Native American Graves Protection & Repatriation Act: A Historical Perspective
Peter Welsh, Ph.D., Director, Museum Studies
KU Spenser Museum of Art, Reception Room

Friday, November 8, 2:30 pm—10:00 pm
Haskell Veteran’s Celebration Traditional Powwow
Gourd Dancing & Grand Entry
Tecumseh Hall, Haskell Indian Nations University

Saturday, November 9, 10:30 am—11:30 am
Saturday Art Adventure: Native American Beadwork Family
Friendly tour, learn about NA traditions, create own beadwork master pieces
Ages 5-8, On-Site Registration
KU Spencer Museum of Art

Saturday, November 9, 1:00 pm
AIHREA Community Research Forum & Powwow
Douglas County Fair Grounds
www.aihrea.org/htdocs/events.html

Monday, November 11, 4:00 pm—5:30 pm
“Climate Change, Indigenous Peoples, and the Search for Legal Remedies” Book talk & signing
Elizabeth Kronk-Warner, J.D., Director, Tribal Law & Gov’t Center, School of Law, KU
Jayhawk Ink—KU Memorial Union
Sponsors: KU School of Law, KU Tribal Law & Gov’t Center, KU Native Faculty and Staff Council, Edward Elger Publishing

Wednesday, November 13, 4:00 pm
We Were Children Documentary
Haskell Cultural Center & Museum
Questions Call: 785-766-5000

Thursday, November 14, 6:00 pm—7:00 pm
“Still Here to Tell Our Stories”
Panel Presentation lead by Freda Gipp and invited guests from Haskell Indian Nations University
Governor’s Room, KS Memorial Union
Sponsor: KU Native Faculty and Staff Council

Friday, November 15, 9:00 am—3:00 pm
Inaugural Native American Leadership Symposium Opened to High School and College students
Registration Required
www.oma.ku.edu

Friday, November 15
National Rock Your Moccs Days
#rockyourmoccs13

Saturday, November 16, 8:00 am
Benefit Run for the 26th Annual KU Spring Contest Powwow
Host: Haskell Phi Sigma Nu & KU First Nations Student Association (FNSA)
Haskell Cross Country Course

Saturday, November 16, 8:00 am—3:00 pm
Inaugural Native American Leadership Symposium Opened to High School and College students
Registration Required
www.oma.ku.edu

Friday, November 15
National Rock Your Moccs Days
#rockyourmoccs13

Wednesday, November 20, 4:00 pm—5:00 pm
The Uncommon Book, Native American Perspective
Blane Harding
Office of Multicultural Affairs, Classroom 116

Thursday, November 21, 3:30 pm—5:00 pm
“Competitive Victimhood as a Response to Accusations of In-Group Harm Doing”
Mark Landua, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor, Psychology, KU
KU Hall Center for Humanities, Seminar Room

Friday, November 22, 3:00 pm Reception, 3:00 pm Talk “Toward Respect and Reciprocity: Ethics in Collaborations across Indigenous Knowledges and Climate Change Science” Kyle Powys Whyte, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor, Psychology, KU
The Commons, KU

For more information contact the Office of Multicultural Affairs at (785)864-4350. Also see the KU Indigenous Studies and American Indian Health Research & Education Alliance (AIHREA) website for events at KU-Lawrence, KU Medical Center, Haskell Indian Nations University and surrounding areas: